TERMS OF AGREEMENT.

1. The purchaser agrees to accept every month such quantities of timber not being less than one-twelfth of the minimum specified in para 6 infra and such other additional quantity as the purchaser may require and the Conservator may be able to supply during the month.

2. The Conservator does not bind himself to supply the minimum or any quantity, and he does not bind himself to assign any reason for so doing.

3. In the case of timber of kinds other than those contracted for, which may be in request on the Gold Mines, the purchaser will be given the first refusal of such timber at such reasonable rates as may be fixed by the Conservator of Forests which shall not exceed, however, the rates offered by other persons.

4. During the period embraced by the contract, the Conservator will not supply to any other person or any Gold Mining Company in India, timber of the contracted kinds for use in Kolar Gold Fields from the..... District.

5. The purchaser agrees that he will not sub-let the contract.

6. The purchaser further agrees to purchase not less than the minimum quantity of timber of the kinds and dimensions specified at the rates noted in the subjoined table annually.
